This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION.

New Kent county was formed from the county of York in 1654, and it seems that the parish of St. Peter's was established about the same time.

In 1684-'85 Blissland Parish was cut off from St. Peter's.

The following were the ministers of St. Peter's Parish from 1682. Earlier ones are not known:

Rev. William Sellake, 1682.
Rev. John Carr, 1684-1685.
Rev. John Ball, 1685-1687.
Rev. John Page, 1687.
Rev. John Ball, 1689.
Rev. Mr. Williams, 1689.
Rev. John Gordon, 1690.
Rev. Jacob Ware, 1690-1695.
Rev. Nicholas Moreau, 1696-1698.
Rev. James Bowker, 1698-1703.
Rev. Richard Squire, 1703-1707.
Rev. Daniel Taylor, 1707.
Rev. Samuei Gray, 1707-1710.
Rev. William Brodie, 1710-1721.
Rev. Zacharias Brooke, 1721.
Rev. Mr. Brownscale, 1722.
Rev. Mr. Forbess, 1723.
Rev. Henry Collings, 1723-1725.
Rev. John Lang, 1725-1727.
Rev. David Mossom, 1727-1758.

Of several of these ministers nothing is known.

Rev. John Ball was a signer of a petition to Governor Nicholson in April, 1700.

Mr. Williams was probably William Williams, also signer of the petition just referred to.

Jacob Ware was for many years minister of Henrico Parish.

Nicholas Moreau was doubtless one of the Huguenots who emigrated to Virginia in August, 1696. A letter from him to the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, dated April, 1697, is printed in Perry's papers relating to the Church in Virginia.

James Bowker died as minister of St. Peter's, and his will is proved in New Kent, November 17th, 1704. He was brother of Ralph Bowker, minister of St. Stephens', in King and Queen county.

Daniel Taylor had a son of his own name who was educated in an English University, and was for a long time a faithful minister in a Virginia Parish.

The Vestry of St. Peter's Parish must have been in sore need when it employed Rev. Samuel Gray, for shortly before 1699, while minister of a church in Middlesex, he caused the death of a slave by severe whipping.

Rev. Henry Collings, in a letter to the Bishop of London in 1724, reports that this "parish has two hundred and four families in it, forty or fifty communicants, only one church (St Peter's); about one hundred and seventy or one hundred and eighty attendants. His salary eighty pounds, more or less. Glebe and parsonage rented out for six pounds five shillings per annum. Catechising had been much neglected. He intended to introduce it."

"Rev. John Lang came highly recommended from England to Governor Drysdale and Commissary Blair." In a letter to the Bishop of London, February 7th, 1725-26, he says: "I observe the people here (New Kent) are very zealous for our Holy Church as it is established in England, so that (except some few inconsiderable Quakers) there are scarce any dissenters from our communion."

Rev. David Mossom, the last minister who appears in this Vestry Book, was pastor of St Peter's for forty years. He performed the ceremony when George Washington was married to Martha Custis. He himself was married four times. Rev. David Mossom came from Newburyport, Massachusetts, to Virginia. He was born in London, March 25th, 1690, and educated at St. John's College, Cambridge.

St. Peter's Church still stands (the present edifice was built in 1703), and cost one hundred and forty-six thousand weight of tobacco. The steeple was added to the church twelve years after it was erected. As the place where the Widow Custis worshipped, and where, it is supposed, she was sometimes attended by George Washington, it possesses a peculiar interest.
